

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Dr. Morrill, Dentist.

Rev. McDaid has returned from a short visit in Denver.

J. B. Waterbury of Brady spent this week here on business.

Mrs. George Finn will return today from a short visit in Denver.

Miss Melba Kelso has gone to Council Bluffs to take a course in nursing.

Dr. Brock, Dentist, over Stone Drug Store.

The carpenter work on the new Belmont building will begin in a few days.

Miss Essie Wessburg has accepted a position in the county superintendent's office.

Miss Marie McCabe has returned to Notre Dame college to finish her course.

Miss Elsie Retschke, of Omaha, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Meadows.

Miss Erma Barracough, who has been ill with appendicitis, is very much improved.

Mrs. Claude Weingand and son visited Miss Bertha Thoelecke at Melrose this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barber and baby have gone to Lowellen to remain several weeks.

Dr. F. J. Wartelle left the first of the week for Rochester, Minn., on professional business.

Miss Hazel Minshall left Tuesday evening for Lincoln where she is employed as teacher.

Mrs. Charles Trevillo and daughter Miss Sadie, left Wednesday for Grand Island to visit friends.

Miss Sybil Gantt left yesterday morning for Lincoln to attend the university and to teach school.

Mrs. Bruce Brown and child returned Tuesday evening from a visit in the eastern part of the state.

Mrs. Jos. Shoup and daughter, of Maxwell, came Wednesday morning to visit Miss Laura Murray.

H. P. Smith of Broken, Bow, has resigned his position in the Tramp grocery and returned home.

Miss Ethel Donegan, who spent several months with her sister in California, will return tomorrow.

Mrs. Anna Seyferth will leave the first of next week for Omaha to make her home with her daughter.

Cyril Donegan will leave Sunday for Lincoln to resume his studies at the state agricultural college.

For Rent—House at 206 west Sixth street. Inquire of Mrs. R. D. Thompson, 514 W. Fifth.

Corporal Butler Miltonberger, of Co. E, who had been stationed at Ft. Crook, has been transferred to Alliance.

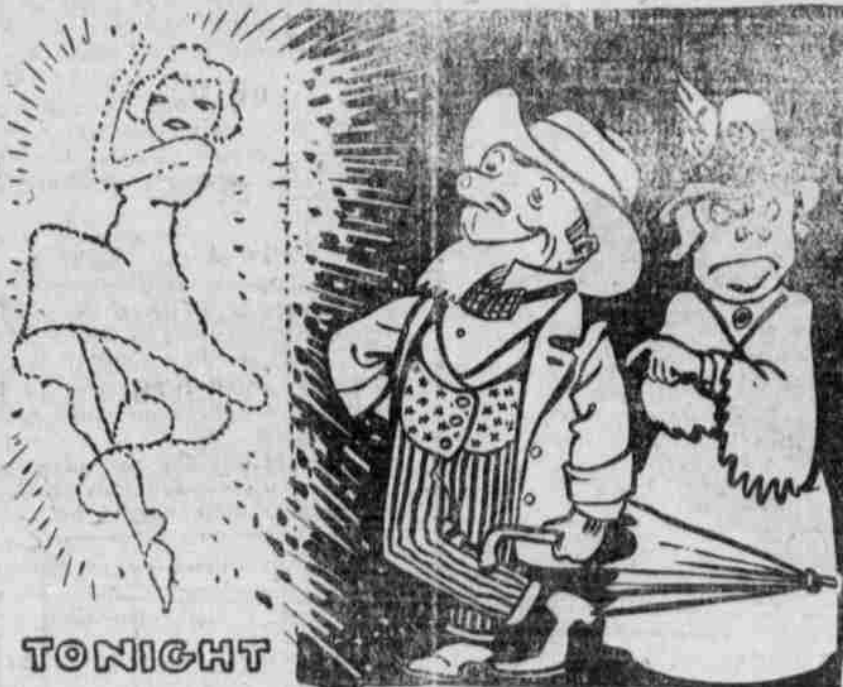

Miss Hazel Young, of Hastings, who spent several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Carl Simon, will leave today.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grady and child left Tuesday evening for Grand Island and Fremont to visit relatives.

Mrs. Henry Stearley, of Gibbon, returned home Tuesday afternoon after visiting with Mrs. T. C. Christianson.

Miss Ellen McCarthy is expected home this week from Spaulding where she visited relatives for three weeks.

The electric light company has removed its pole line on Front street between Pine and Locust which gives a much neater appearance to the south side of that street.

An Eye Catcher

Tonight and every other night you can call attention from far and near to your business with an electric sign. Up and down the street as far as you can see, it will flash your message.

EDISON MAZDA LAMPS

The 5 and 10 watt EDISON MAZDA Sign Lamps give from 40 to 65 per cent more light than the old-style carbon lamps and cost only one-half as much to operate.

Our sign expert will gladly tell you more about this new economy, and explain how you can get the best results from electric signs for your business.

North Platte Light & Power Co.

EVENTS IN SOCIETY

The Thilikum Girls will meet in the church basement Monday evening.

The Indian card club will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Herrod Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Chester Meconber entertained the Happy Hours club at a Kensington Wednesday afternoon.

The Mothers' Club spent a pleasant afternoon with Mrs. P. M. Soranach Wednesday. The ladies spent the afternoon in Kensington work.

The lady members of the 500 club will meet at the Streets home this evening to make arrangements for the parties that will be held during the coming season.

Mrs. F. W. Rincker entertained a number of ladies Wednesday evening, complimentary to Mrs. Worthley, of Louisville. Several hours were spent in playing bridge.

Mrs. George Yeoman entertained at a one o'clock luncheon Wednesday afternoon in favor of Miss Elsie Retschke, of Omaha. Covers were laid for ten. The table was decorated with fall flowers.

Mrs. Arthur Artz and Mrs. Robert Arnold entertained a number of young ladies at a bundle shower for Miss Lucy McMichael last evening at the Artz home. A number of useful household articles were presented to the guest of honor.

Mrs. John McDonald entertained the J. E. F. club Tuesday afternoon at cards. Mesdames Edwin Barnacough, Edward Rehhausen, and Miss Effie Durbin were awarded prizes. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mesdames Ray Dorran, Tim O'Keefe and Zella Dorran.

The Catholic Girls' club was entertained at the Flynn home last evening by Misses Madge Flynn, Bess Chamberlain, Ellen McGovern, Beadie Smith and Sadie Shedy. Prizes were awarded to Misses Irene O'Donnell and Ruth Hubbard. Out of town guests were Mesdames George Schatz, of Ogden and Wilfred Stuart, of Lexington.

Mrs. W. R. Maloney was hostess on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons to one hundred and twenty ladies at receptions at her home on east Third street. The receiving hours were from 2:30 to 5:30 p. m. and fall flowers were used in decorating the rooms. Refreshments were served on small tables. A large number of out of town guests who are visiting here were included among the guests.

Return from Pleasant Outing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Shuman and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Crosby and children returned Tuesday evening from the head of West Poudre creek where, in company with Elmer Crosby and family of Sutherland, they spent a week camping out. The party found chickens and grouse plentiful and the diet of these was alternated with frog legs, the spring where they camped abounding with frogs. Complete camp equipage and conveniences made the week's stay one of comfort and enjoyment.

Anna Katherine Green's novel "The Millionaire Baby" will be presented in a photoplay at the Crystal Saturday night, 10 and 15c.

Monday night's program at the Keith will be the Western drama, "Hell's Hinges" with Wm. S. Hart and Clara Williams and the comedy "Cinders of Love" with Chester Conklin.

Misses Maud Owens and Margaret Craigie assisted by Mrs. Bowler entertained thirty members of their Sunday school classes at a picnic at the city park Wednesday afternoon. A number of outdoor games were played and a basket dinner served. The little folks were conveyed to the grounds in automobiles.

The city council met in regular session Tuesday evening and devoted the time to allowing claims, among which was an approved estimate for $7,478.05 in favor of Gerald Stack, the paving contractor. The traffic ordinance drafted several weeks ago was not introduced, probably due to the unavoidable absence of Corporation Counsel Keefe.

Marjorie Williams was given a home the first of the week by Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Kerr, whose application was one of eighteen received by Sheriff Salisbury and H. G. Knowles. The boy is thirteen years of age and was found in the railroad yards recently by the city officials. He stated that he had made his living by selling papers since he was a small child and never knew the comforts of a home.

F. J. DIENER & CO.

Real Estate and Insurance

Come and see us for town lots in different parts of the city. Good investments on easy terms. Houses for sale and rent. We have also good bargains in farms and ranches.

Cor. Front and Dewey Sts., upstairs.

DOLLARS

Are easy to get. But hard to keep. You can have more of them by spending your money on our line of Furniture, Rugs, Tables, Chairs, Cabinets, Dressers Sewing Machines. We have some used Furniture that looks like new will sell for less than half of its original cost. Bargains in Show Cases, Tables and Stools.

Look at our Guns and Shells.

Guns for Rent.

We pay top price for Iron and Junk.

ECHELBERY
600 LOCUST.

Becoming Dresses

for school girls and little tots

2 to 6 years and 6 to 14 years

50 Cents to $5.00

A varied assortment of children's dresses like these make it a pleasure for mothers to come here and provide liberally for their little girls' school wants and Sunday dresses too. We feature many new styles in gingham and dainty light or dark colored wash fabrics and plaids and checks and woolsens. The best values for the money are offered in styles that appeal instantly.

Wilcox Department Store.

RAILROAD NOTES

Supt. Brophy, of the Union Pacific, spent Tuesday here on business.

Conductor P. J. O'Brien has returned from a visit with the home folks in Omaha and resumed his run.

Passenger brakeman Frank Lowell has gone to Excelsior Springs, Mo., to recuperate for a week or ten days.

J. H. McKale of the Western Union office, left Wednesday evening for Colorado to spend a week or longer.

George Zentmeyer who has been trainmaster at Grand Island for several months will return here in a few days and take his former position as chief dispatcher.

Engineer E. E. Moody will return tonight from Chicago where he has been attending the national convention of the Spanish War Veterans as a Nebraska delegate.

Chas. W. Kouns general manager of the Santa Fe system, died at his home in Topeka, Kansas, Sunday. Mr. Kouns was located in North Platte in 1887 as assistant superintendent of the Union Pacific.

Press dispatches state that employees of the railroads other than members of the four brotherhoods are to make a determined fight upon the Adamson eight hour law. It is claimed that the new law only affects 400,000 men and ignores 1,500,000 other railroad employees.

Trains from the west were delayed several hours Wednesday by the derailment of fourteen cars at Herndon, west of Sidney. The derailment was due to the sinking of the embankment which had been softened and undermined by a flood from the hills following a heavy rain about ten o'clock Tuesday evening.

Following is the menu for the commercial dinner which will be served at the Christian church Monday from 11:30 to 1:30: Fried chicken, gravy, mashed potatoes, green beans, carrots creamed with peas, sliced cucumbers, beet pickles, combination salad, lemon pie, iced tea and coffee.

For Sale
Good Hay Land 5 miles from Dickinson, Lincoln Co., Neb. Address Mrs. M. E. Nelson, Chula Vista, Calif. 67-4

Gerald Stack has returned from Denver, where he visited last week.

Hugh Davis left Tuesday for Denver where he will spend several weeks.

For Rent—Five room modern house at 614 Lincoln Ave. Inquire of J. H. Fonda.

Miss Elfreda Mettin resigned her position in the ten cent store the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, of Perry, Iowa, who visited their daughter, Mrs. Arthur McMullen this week, have returned home by auto.

1008 west Fourth street, Homeopathic Hospital.

A carload of marble was received Wednesday by Abernathy & Woodgate, who recently opened monumental works on Locust street.

Show Her You Mean Business

Take it from us, young man, few girls of the right sort have the heart to turn down a man who is thoughtful enough to give her in the beginning her heart's desire—a home of her own. It's the one thing that every woman wants for there her dreams of past years become realities.

Build a Home Now

and start life in the right way—full of happiness and contentment. We have several books of the latest designed houses and bungalows. Come in and select the one you like best and let us figure the cost for you complete, foundation and all. We have everything in building material you'll need. Come in any day and we'll show you a plan she'll like.

W. W. BIRGE CO.

PHONE 9.

Maxwell

$595

E.O.B. DETROIT

You will not see a long list of necessary accessories advertised for Maxwell cars.

ELECTRIC starter and lights, one-man mohair top, demountable rims, rain-vision windshield, speedometer, linoleum covered floor boards and running boards—all these features, which are found on much more expensive cars, are part of the regular Maxwell equipment. They are included in the list price. When you buy a Maxwell, your investment is completed. There are no extras to buy.

In addition you get a car of proved endurance, of unusual economy. And behind these qualities there is the record and reputation of the Maxwell, which is second to none.

We insist and will prove to you that the Maxwell is the world's greatest motor car value.

5-passenger Touring Car, $595 3-passenger Cabriolet, $865
2-passenger Roadster, 580 6-passenger Town Car, 915
5-passenger Sedan, $985

C. M. TROTTER, AGENT.
North Platte and Brady.

